

Teaching Company Course : DVD Name: The Wisdom of History , taught by Professor Rufus J. Fears from the University of Oklahoma.

Below are the titles of the DVD's we will be watching on Tuesday afternoons at 1:30 at Hodgdon Green in Damariscotta. Note that dates may change if inclement weather forces us to cancel a session.

Jan. 3 Why We Study History; World War 1 and the Lessons of History

Jan. 10 Hitler's Rise and the Lessons of History; World War II and the Lessons of History

Jan. 17 Is Freedom a Universal Value?; Birth of Civilization in the Middle East

Jan.24 The Trojan War and the Middle East; Ancient Israel and the Middle East

Jan. 31 Ancient Greece and the Middle East; Athenian Democracy and Empire

Feb. 7 The Destiny of the Athenian Democracy; Alexander the Great and the Middle East

Feb. 14 The Roman Republic as Superpower; Rome of the Caesars as Superpower

Feb. 21 Rome and the Middle East; Why the Roman Empire Fell

Feb. 28 Christianity; Islam

Mar. 6 The Ottoman Empire and Turkey; The Spanish Empire and Latin America

Mar. 13 Napoleon's Liberal Empire; The British Empire in India

Mar. 20 Russia and Empire; China and Empire

Mar. 27 The Empire of Genghis Kahn; Britain's Legacy of Freedom

Apr. 3 George Washington as Statesman; Thomas Jefferson as Statesman

April 10 America's Empire of Liberty-Lewis and Clark; America and Slavery

Apr. 17 Abraham Lincoln as Statesman; The United States and Empire

Apr. 24 Franklin Roosevelt as Statesman; A Superpower at the Crossroads

May 1 The Wisdom of History and the Citizen; The Wisdom of History and You